

Laski Sans & Stencil

Name	Laski Sans
Designer	Ramiro Espinoza
Design date	2016
Weights	20

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razor-back jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial, foxy

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial, foxy physique,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine consulate in Milan.

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over
happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra
likes to jump over happy dogs. How razor-
back jumping frogs can level six piqued
gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial, foxy physique,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt,

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine consulate in Milan.

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over
happy dogs. How razorback
jumping frogs can level six

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra
likes to jump over happy dogs. How razor-
back jumping frogs can level six piqued
gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial, foxy physique,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine consulate in Milan.

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping
frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra
likes to jump over happy dogs. How razor-
back jumping frogs can level six piqued
gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes
confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial, foxy physique,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine consulate in Milan.

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at the Argentine

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

QUITTING SMOKING EARLY 'CUTS HEART RISK'

Gulliver's travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gym-

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the

42 / 50 Pts.

*Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping
frogs can level six piqued gym-*

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

*Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes
confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,*

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the war he served at

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

‘CUTS HEART RISK’

Gulliver’s travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille,

42 / 50 Pts.

*Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over
happy dogs. How razorback
jumping frogs can level six*

32 / 38 Pts.

*Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six
piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka*

24 / 29 Pts.

*Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes
confound zany experimental vow. Cute, kind, jovial,*

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence; towards the end of the

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

‘CUTS HEART RISK’

Gulliver’s travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille,

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over
happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs.
How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille, and Florence;

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

‘CUTS HEART RISK’

Gulliver’s travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours,

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel,
and zebra likes to jump over
happy dogs. How razorback
jumping frogs can level

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six
piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump
over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother's native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille,

China Colliery

FALKLANDS SAY YES TO STAYING BRITISH

Security

Legal bid over disabled living fund

Prospect

‘CUTS HEART’ RISK’

Gulliver’s travels in science

Deadly

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours,

42 / 50 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level

32 / 38 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka

24 / 29 Pts.

Every good cow, fox, squirrel, and zebra likes to jump over happy dogs. How razorback jumping frogs can level six piqued gymnasts! Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels. Big July earthquakes confound zany experimental vow. Cute,

10 / 13 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and

8 / 10 Pts.

Xul Solar was the adopted name of Oscar Agustín Alejandro Schulz Solari (born December 14, 1887 – April 9, 1963), Argentine painter, sculptor, writer, and inventor of imaginary languages. He was born in San Fernando, Buenos Aires Province, in the bosom of a cosmopolitan family. His father, Elmo Schulz Riga, of Baltic German origin, was born in the Latvian city of Riga, at that time part of Imperial Russia. He was educated in Buenos Aires, first as a musician, then as an architect (although he never completed his architectural studies). After working as a schoolteacher and holding a series of minor jobs in the municipal bureaucracy, on April 5, 1912, he set out on the ship “England Carrier”, supposedly to work his passage to Hong Kong, but he disembarked in London and made his way to Turin. He returned to London to meet up with his mother and aunt, with whom he traveled to Paris, Turin (again), Genoa, and his mother’s native Zoagli. Over the following few years, despite the onset of World War I, he would move among these cities, as well as Tours, Marseille,