

A TYPEFACE WITH PERSONALITY AND ELEGANCE

AnaDiego takes its name from the asteroid Anadiego, a distinguished member of the asteroid belt, which, in turn, pays tribute to the prominent Argentine astronomy student Ana Teresa Diego, who tragically disappeared in 1976 during her country's dictatorship. This typeface embodies Ana Teresa Diego's uniqueness and legacy, with a style that stands out in the world of typography. With AnaDiego, you not only get an exceptional typeface but also contribute to keeping the memory of Ana Teresa Diego and her passion for astronomy alive. Every time you use AnaDiego, you pay tribute to a brilliant and courageous mind.

DISTINCTIVE STYLE AND TIGHT CLOSURES

AnaDiego is a display sans-serif typeface that sets itself apart with tight closures between closed letters like "c," "e," "s," and "a." These characteristics give it a unique personality and set it apart from the common shapes of other sans-serif fonts. Its exceptional design makes it the perfect choice for large texts, titles, subtitles, labels, and any text that requires a striking presence.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR SPACE

Another standout feature of AnaDiego is its condensed and narrow design. This allows for a significant amount of text to fit into a small space, making it an invaluable tool for designers and creators looking to maximize design efficiency without compromising on elegance.

WIDE VARIETY OF WEIGHTS AND LINGUISTIC COVERAGE

AnaDiego is composed of 6 weights: Thin, ExtraLight, Light, Regular, Medium, and Bold. Each of these weights comes with a character set of 725 letters that provide extensive linguistic coverage, including Vietnamese.
